Dedication

Mr. Gary Walters

Mr. Walters has been an integral part of the Taunton High School community for many years. He has created and printed many of the materials we all come into contact with on a regular basis, but it is what he does outside of the print shop that causes students and faculty to notice. His spirit and dedication to the school and it's students makes Mr. Walters stand head and shoulders above the rest. The Class of 2007 thanks you, Mr. Walters, for you support, guidance and friendship.

Remember the Good Times...

Let Them Stay With You Forever!

Don't Forget the Memories...

Keep Them in Your Heart Always!

Here's To The Night!

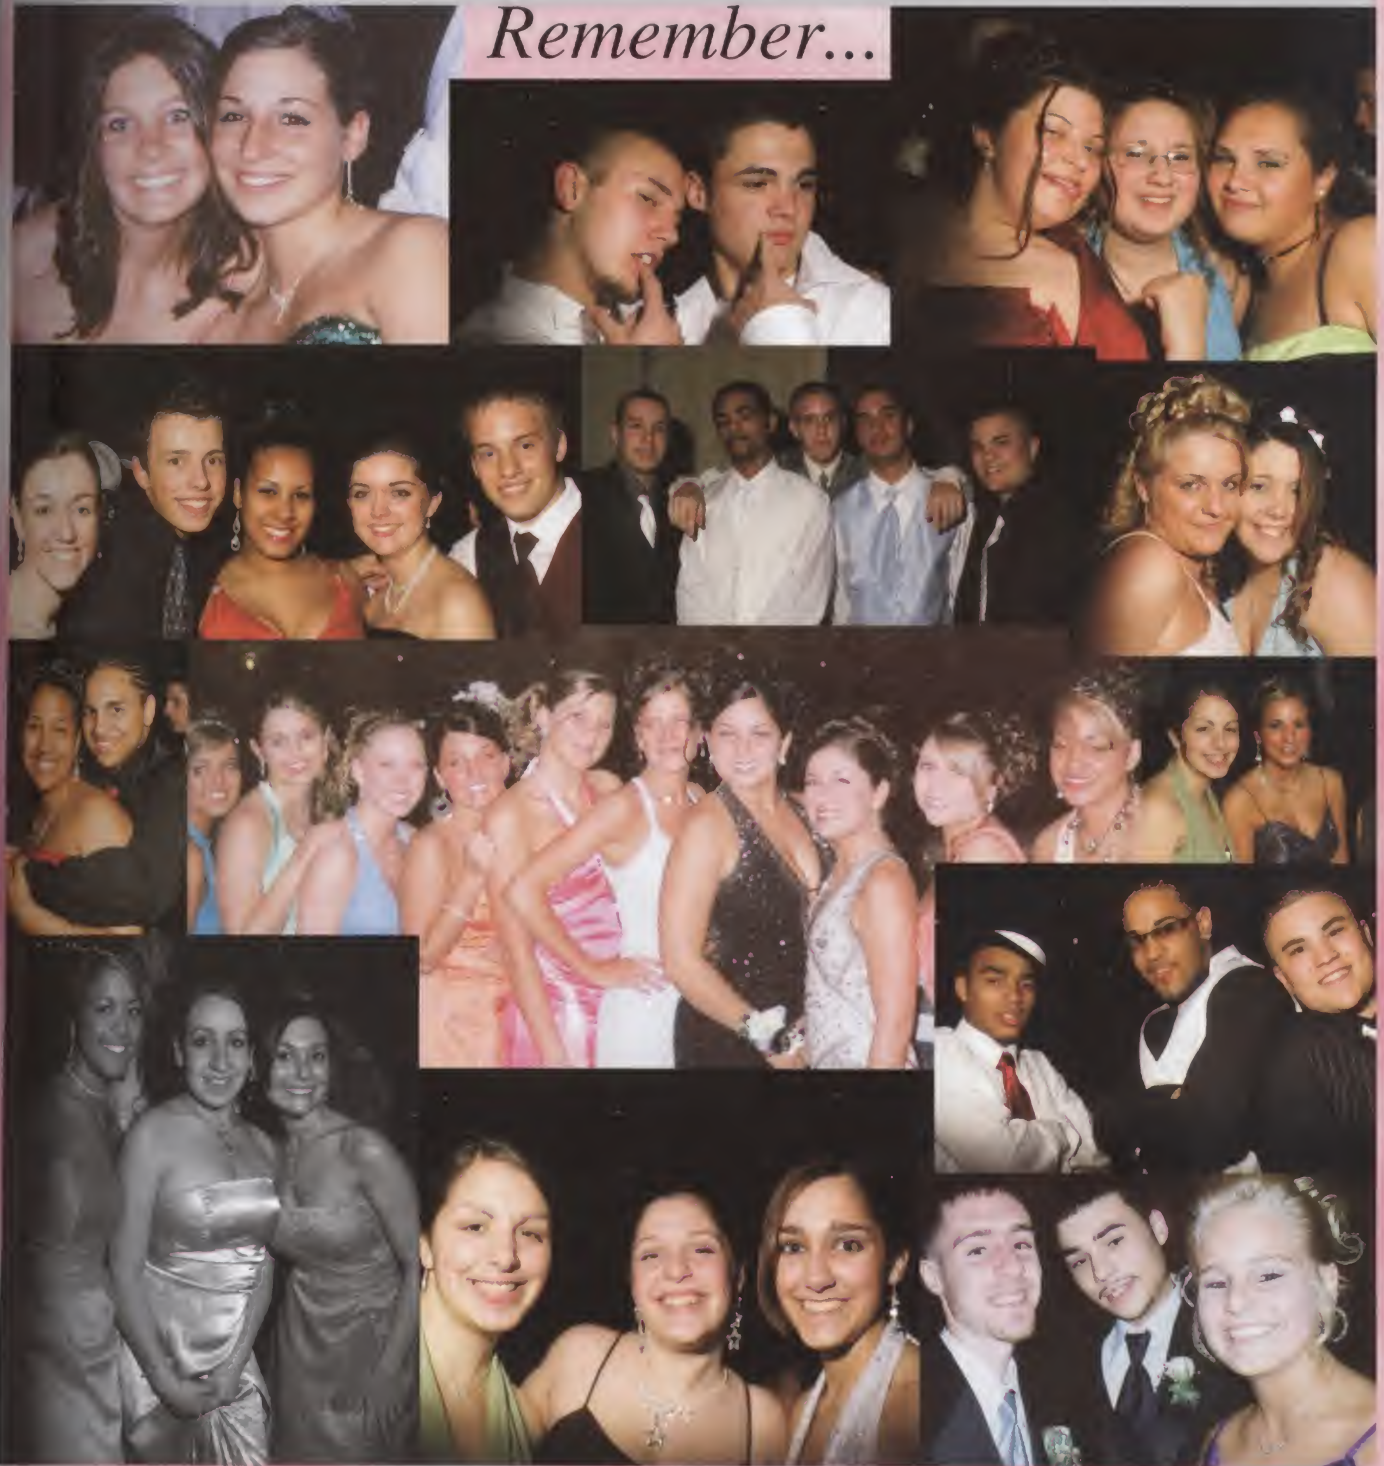

Class of 2007

These Are The
Moments, These Are
The Times, Let's
Make The Best Out
Of Our Lives

The Night You'll Always Remember...

*...With The Friends
You'll Never Forget*

Candid

Put a Smile On! Eveybody Come On!

AHH the friends and laughs
we've made here.....

we opened
our eyes..

no time to
sleep..

As we go
on...

we make each
other stronger

sometimes all we can do is make
funny faces...

we removed
the masks..

all the good
times

strike a
pose...

WE DID IT!!!

hugs &
kisses

lean on me...

Put a smile on
your face.....

You are truly an inspiration to all who know you.
You have grown into the most honest, caring,
hard working person we know.
You have a very special gift,
since birth you've had a great sense of humor
and can make anyone smile.
We are very proud of you
and want you to be the best person
you can be in whatever path
you may take in life.
We love you.

Justin Cohenno

You were born with the qualities of a true gentleman and a smile that melts the hearts of those you meet. The past four years have brought good times and bad, and while some setbacks have been easier than others to overcome, we always had faith in you and you in yourself. Know that you will never have to face challenges alone because we will always be there to support you. We will always be proud of you. You're our little boy, our little brother.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Peter & Mark

Marissa Diminico..Rissy

Marissa,

Just last night I tucked you into bed as you snuggled with your blankie and Patch. Your two middle fingers were in your mouth as they always were when you were tired. You had just come home from trick- or- treating as "Wednesday Addams" at Uncle Randy's house. Your big sister was right next to you telling you not to be afraid because "Bri Bri will take care of you!" Giovanna was already asleep clutching Pepper, after mumbling, "Fine Emma, don't love me." I still see you as I drive up Floral Street, standing at Stasia's knee as she peels apples for you and your friends. Her warm smile assures me your days were filled with fun and love. We visit MeMere and PePere as they get home from a long trip and you can't wait to see them. You know there will be big hugs and a special surprise for you. We drive to the Boston Marathon with your cousins to look for Auntie Dianne as 15,000 people race towards us in a blur. Finally, we hear PePere yell: "There's Auntie Dianne..there she goes!" and we head for the finish line. Nana makes funny faces to make "Marie-ssa" giggle, and we bike ride the canal with Aunt Mona and Jason. We sit with Nana and Auntie Al at Salisbury Beach as Nano digs you and your sisters a pool in the sand at low tide. After the sun goes over the marsh, we go to the center to ride the Ferris Wheel and play skeeball. Summer passes and we are at Daddy's favorite place: tailgating at the Patriot's game with Auntie Debby and Uncle Marka. You're only five years old but already calling the plays as you yell to our team to "Kick them in the ##!" A few years later, the entire Diminico family will be on our knees, holding hands as we pray for Vinaterri to make the kick for the Super bowl winning field goal...TWICE! Soon it's times for crispelli's with Uncle Jeff at the Feast d/St. Alfio. You sit in front of the Christmas tree with foam curlers in your hair and the lights sparkling in your eyes as Uncle Dave and Daddy fight over the pickled salad. Rosann calls the family to gather around the tree as we hear Nano say, "Every year the circle gets bigger!"

This was just yesterday Marissa. I stared at you while you slept in your crib and prayed not to let the years fly by. I prayed for the time which I knew was as precious as you. I prayed not to wake up the next morning and find you about to graduate high school. And here you are. Our time has flown by like a week at the Ocean Wave but we know we have been blessed by the most precious gifts...times three! Our family is our life and our memories are our treasures. As you follow your dreams, we will continue to cherish each moment like new sea glass we find as we walk together. Our sweet little girl has grown into a beautiful, caring and sincere woman who is the person we would like to be.

We love you, Rissy and we are so very proud of you!

"When I'm gone I hope you'll see how happy you made me!"

Seems like yesterday you were this nervous little boy in Kindergarten..
now look at you. Always follow
your dreams and don't let anyone
get in your way! You're a smart, talented young man that can do
anything if you put your mind to it.
Keep doing the right thing; you're a great son and the BEST big brother!
